

Making CiderCon a great experience

We are an organization of equal members where every attendee has something to share and something to learn. All are welcome. All are invited to fully participate.

As an association of professionals, we are committed to safe and respectful treatment of each and every one of you. Please review the Conference Code of Conduct and remember to respect one another's boundaries. Let's learn and have fun together.

Welcome to CiderCon! Conference Code of Conduct

- Treat fellow conference participants with courtesy, respecting personal space and boundaries
- Manage your alcohol consumption to remain in control of your behavior
- Obey the rules and regulations of the venue
- Do not damage private or communal property
- Harassment of any kind will not be tolerated. Participants asked to stop any harassing behavior are expected to comply immediately. If you witness or are subjected to inappropriate behavior or have any other concerns, notify Monica Cohen, CEO, in person or via email (monica@ciderassociation.org). You can be assured she will handle your concern with sensitivity and privacy.

We expect participants to follow these rules at conference and workshop venues and conference-related social events. The Board reserves the right to remove any conference participant for inappropriate conduct with no refund. Thank you!
